Tourist Business Can Be Increased Here, Travel Council Told At 3rd Birthday Party

Gettysburg's "$20,000,000 tourist business" is a basic part of the community's economy and can be increased, speaker after speaker noted Thursday evening at the third birthday party of the Gettysburg Travel Council at the American Legion post home on Baltimore St.

Parker H. Cunningham, manager of WGET, served as master of ceremonies for a program that included talks by Donald Manning, president of the Travel Council; Burgess William G. Weaver, Charles B. Bender, Dr. J. Walter Coleman, Henry M. Scharf and LeRoy E. Smith, past president of the Travel Council.

President Manning welcomed the 70 attending the party, reported on the 20 Millionth Visitor program last summer, distribution of bumper strips advertising Gettysburg, production of film on Gettysburg, and distribution of folders, letters and other devices employed by the council to promote tourist travel. He explained that the Travel Council is a branch of the Gettysburg Chamber of Commerce and introduced John Madson, who has headed up work on renovation of the Western Maryland railway station here as a tourist center; Allen Larson, immediate past president of the Travel Council, and LeRoy Smith, first president of the organization.

Everyone Benefits

Burgess Weaver told the group: "Each day we are called on for folders and other battlefield information. Without the tourist travel here and the increased amount of building, the borough tax rate would skyrocket. In fact tourist travel has been possibly most instrumental in keeping our taxes down and has been a basis for our businesses. When my father had the Weaver Dry Goods Store here he did a fine business with the tourists and that tourist business continues today with the Gettysburg merchants. Directly or indirectly the tourist helps every business in Gettysburg."

"We should have a courtesy card to place on tourist automobiles. Legally we can't do it."

The borough officer tagging cars for violations of parking regulations cannot pass up one car and place a ticket on another car for the same violation. But we can tell the tourists they are guests of the town and we don't take their dollar. That is the only way legally we can show our courtesy to the tourists. We do try to have our police act courteously to the tourist and they are doing a fine job in that field. You motel and hotel owners can tell your tourists who may have been tagged by the police that they can come to the burgess' office and give us their ticket without paying, or you can bring the ticket in."

A telegram was read from Governor George Leader expressing his best wishes for continued success of the Travel Council, adding that "I deeply regret Mrs. Leader and I, due to illness, cannot be with you tonight."

Victims Of Good Fortune

Henry M. Scharf, manager of the Hotel Gettysburg, said: "Unfortunately no one has been able to figure out what the tourist business is worth to Gettysburg or the state of Pennsylvania. As a state Pennsylvania ranks about fifth in tourist travel; it is behind California and Florida. New York and Ohio are just a little ahead of Pennsylvania. Yet Pennsylvania has everything including Gettysburg, Valley Forge and Independence Hall."

"One thing to remember in our program is that it must be a merchandising program. The travel council is a branch of the Chamber of Commerce. It is seeking to promote business for Gettysburg."

"We must have an intense belief in what we have here. In a sense we have been the victims of good fortune. We have not had to sell our town as other communities have had to sell their attractions. We have had it done for us in many ways."

Warns About By-Pass

"We cannot expect that someone else will always do for us what we should do for ourselves. We must do our own merchandising. We cannot always be so fortunate as we have been in the past."

The Lions club has placed arrangements for the show in the hands of a committee headed by James Hardy and including Jack Hershey and Ross Koons.

PIE CONTEST MONDAY

The selection of Adams County's 1956 cherry pie baking queen will take place in a contest to begin Monday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock in the home economics rooms of Gettysburg High School. Winners selected in previous contests at the various high schools of the county will compete.

REBECCA SACHS NEW PRESIDENT OF B AND P CLUB

Miss Rebecca Sachs was elected as the new president of the local Business and Professional Women's Club at the annual organization meeting Thursday evening at the YWCA building. She will succeed Mrs. Edith Bushman as the club's presiding officer.

The other officers named Thursday included: Vice president, Mrs. Bernard Murray; secretary, Mrs. Rosa Armor, and treasurer, Miss May Duttner.

Mrs. Bushman presided at the business meeting and Miss Rosa Amor was in charge of devotions. Reports of standing committees were presented. Members who helped serve the Rotary club in January were thanked as was Mrs. Jessie Easterday who conducted devotions at the "Y's" annual election meeting last week.

Vote Donations

Club members were urged to attend the county heart association's public meeting next Monday evening at the high school. Several members of the club also will attend the dinner at the high school cafeteria that will precede the auditorium program.

The club voted to send $5 to the county heart fund, $5 to the Beta Sigma Phi and $5 to the Women's Civic Council toward the purchase of a copy of the film "The Story of Gettysburg." The club also made a $5 donation to the March of Dimes.

The president appointed the following to the auditing committee: Mrs. Esther Clapsaddle, chairman, Mrs. Floyd King and Mrs. Anna Bracey.

Next Thursday evening the club's informal initiation party will be held at 7:30 o'clock. Those planning to attend are asked to sign at the "Y" by Wednesday. The Ways and Means prize was won by Mrs. Lois Dengler. Pages for February will be Mrs. James Harness and Irene Smith. The meeting closed with the "Y" purpose and a coffee hour followed.

The committee in charge was Mrs. Caroline Kitzmiller, Mrs. Jean Sumser, Mrs. Lois Wilson, Mrs. Rosanne Wright and Miss Viola Sachs.

SCHOOL 'FAMILY' AT DINNER HERE

The annual joint dinner for school directors of the Gettysburg Joint School District, their wives and school teachers and other district employees was held Thursday evening in the high school cafeteria with 132 present.

The president of the joint school board, Dr. R. D. Wickerham, presided. There were vocal numbers by this group of high school boys led by Paul Grove: Fred Smith, Jon Wagnild, Donald Moser, Roland Keller and Ronald Ditzler.

New members of the school board were introduced by Dr. Wickerham and Dr. Lloyd C. Keefauver, superintendent of schools, introduced the new members of the teaching staff. He also presented 26 teachers who have taught here more than 20 years. Senior teacher present in point of years of service in the local schools was Lloyd R. Hartman, principal at Meade school, who has taught here 37 years.

A group of instrumental numbers was presented by these members of the Sixth grade band, all of them children of directors or teachers: Eileen Zeigler, Barclay Collins, Richard Weikert, Fred Tilberg, Edwin Longanecker, Richard Kitzmiller and Dorothy Durbow. Robert G. Zeigler directed the group.

Dr. Keefauver, himself a veteran of 30 years service here, said the number of teachers in the joint district area jumped from 50 to 85 in the last three decades at Marysville.

A roast turkey dinner was served by the cafeteria staff.

MOOSE WILL INITIATE CLASS

Plans for initiation of a new class of members Sunday afternoon, February 12 at 2 o'clock were outlined Thursday evening at a meeting of the local Moose Lodge at its home on York St.

Leo W. Ryan, Bradford, Pa., past supreme governor of the Moose and currently chairman of the board of Moosehaven, will be the speaker at the initiatory exercises. The Moose ritual will be exemplified by a team from Wilhamsport.

Life memberships were presented to Moses Sponsellier, Gettysburg R. 2, and Nevin J. Keller, Gettysburg R. 3, at Thursday's meeting. Eleven new members were accepted by the lodge and one transfer from another Moose Lodge was accepted.

Governor M. Lloyd Hankey was designated as the representative from the local lodge to a district Moose meeting Sunday afternoon at Marysville.

Secretary Dewey E. Wolff announced that Walter Carl's Orchestra will play for a dance at the Moose Lodge Saturday night and a floor show will be presented by Winnie Sanders and Co. which recently returned from a USA tour to Iceland.

The president appointed the following to the auditing committee: Mrs. Esther Clapsaddle, chairman, Mrs. Floyd King and Mrs. Anna Bracey.

Next Thursday evening the club's informal initiation party will be held at 7:30 o'clock. Those planning to attend are asked to sign at the "Y" by Wednesday. Bruce Catton Writes Special Article For The Times

The Gettysburg Times will publish an exclusive article on Lincoln in its Saturday's edition.

The article, written by Bruce Catton, editor of the American Heritage book-magazine, and Pulitzer prize-winning historian and journalist, will reveal how Lincoln expanded the powers of the Presidency when confronted with the grave issue of slavery at the outset of the Civil War.

Mr. Catton tells how the martyred Lincoln exercised his rights and powers as President of the United States to advance the cause of the Union and how, for the first time, the President did not wait for Congressional action but called for 75,000 volunteers, caused immense financial commitments, suspended the writ of habeas corpus and exercised other almost unknown powers of his office to advance the Union policies.

The article is most revealing and interesting.

Three Crashes Are Too Many

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP) — Charles H. Rose, 38, was shaken up when his car ran off a road. He called a wrecker.

Rose rode in the truck. The truck skidded off the road. Rose was knocked unconscious. The truck driver called an ambulance.

The ambulance collided with a car at an Ann Arbor intersection and was wrecked. Another ambulance was called for Rose.

Rose was dead on arrival at University Hospital.

ADAMS COUNTY MOTORISTS GIVE $3,401 FOR POLIO

SUES AERO OIL FOR DAMAGE TO WELL IN CRASH

Daniel E. and Lydia Gay Nell Hartzell, Hampton, have brought suit agains' the Aero Oil Co., New Oxford for damages resulting from the collision of a gasoline truck 150 feet from their home.

According to the action in trespass brought by the Hartzells gasoline flowing from an Aero Oil Co. tank, after the truck had collided with car in Hampton, February 12, 1955, seeped into the basement of the Hartzell home, and into a well. So badly did the gasoline contaminate the water, according to the complaint, that they have been unable to drink it and will have to drill a new well to secure a suitable supply.

In their complaint, filed for them by Attorney John A. MacPhall of the law firm of Swope, Brown and Swope, the Hartzells alledge that they had to leave their home for two days after the crash because of the danger from the spilled gasoline.

Since the gasoline contaminated the well, the Hartzells have been hauling drinking water to their home, they assert.

The Hampton couple allegue negligence on the part of the driver of the Aero Oil Co. truck caused the accident which led to the gasoline entering their premises.

TRAIN, BUCKETS, TRUCKS USED AT MARYLAND FIRE

HAGERSTOWN, Md. (AP)—Using anything that would haul water, including steam engines, firemen today saved a major portion of the Maugansville Elevator and Lumber Co. from fiery destruction.

Fire wrecked the firm's main building housing offices and the planing mill, plus some sheds, but the main lumber storage sheds and grain elevators were saved.

About 60 firemen from three companies battled the flames.

Use 2 Engines

They used two Pennsylvania Railroad team engines to bring in 20,000 gallons of water. Also used, in addition to regular fire tankers, were milk and oil tanker trucks, and bucket brigades. Water also was pumped from cisterns and wells.

Water had to be hauled about a mile. The plant is located about four miles northwest of Hagerstown. It is operated by Jack Petre and Adam Martin, Partners.

Fire Chief John Hall of Hagers-town said the blaze apparently started in a furnace room. Flames first were spotted about 11:30 p.m. and were finally put out about 4 a.m.

Two firemen were treated for burns.

Scholarships Open To Pennsylvanians

Four-year scholarships to St. John's College, Annapolis, Md., will be available next fall to applicants from Pennsylvania, President Richard D. Weigel announced today.

The scholarships vary in size from $500 to $1,500 per year, depending on individual need. They were established in the memory of George M. Austin, of Philadelphia, by his family. Austin graduated from St. John's in 1908.

St. John's College, according to President Weigel, "conducts an all-required curriculum in the liberal arts, centered on Great Books seminars and including a thorough grounding in science, mathematics, languages, and music."

Students interested in applying for the Austin Memorial Scholarships must write to the director of admissions, St. John's College, Annapolis, Maryland.

Arraigned Here On 3 Serious Charges

Frederick Wayne Hemminger Myers, 28, Gettysburg R. 2, was arraigned before Justice of the Peace John H. Baschor Thursday afternoon on a statutory charge brought by state police involving a 14-year-old girl, another charge of infidelity and contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

Myers was returned to the Adams County jail in default of bail. The hearing was set for next week.

The alleged crimes were committed between October 1 and 12, 1955, and at other times before and since in Cumberland Twp.

Too Many Lobbyists, Not Enough Lobby

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP)—The Kentucky Senate has more lobbyists than lobby space. Lt. Gov. Harry Lee Waterfield, the Senate's presiding officer, said senators had difficulty getting to and from the Senate chamber. He threatened arrests and fines unless ranks are thinned.

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP)—Cattle 300, receipts consisted mostly of stocker and feeder steers, medium and good feeders 15.00-17.00, utility and commercial cows 12.00 to 13.75. Calves 0, no trading. Hogs 25, not enough to create a market. Sheep 0, slaughter lambs closed 50 cents higher, very little trading.

"I believe with Dr. Coleman that we can lose our battlefield as we know it now unless we have courage to fight to maintain it against encroachments."

"And all must share. None of us can be outsiders, saying we do not share in the tourist dollar, for all of us do share in it. Even the college is part of the tourist trade. It attracts parents and friends here. They visit, and become part of our tourist trade. They tour the field and tell others of what they see in Gettysburg and bring more visitors here."

2 BADLY HURT WHEN RACING CARS CRACK UP

Two young motorists were believed by police to have been racing on the snow-covered highway at 12:30 a.m. Thursday when their automobiles overturned, one after hitting two telephone poles and the other after crashing into a culvert along Rt. 34, three miles south of Carlisle.

State Police at Carlisle reported Richard Weidner, 20, of Mt. Holly Springs, driver of one car, and his passenger, Edward Starner, 18, of Gardners R. 2, were injured seriously.

Roger Sowers, 21, also of Gardners R. 2, driver of the other vehicle, escaped with facial cuts, according to the police report.

Police said both motorists, "apparently racing," were driving northward at "high rates of speed" when Weidner's car shot out of control, crossed to the west side of the highway, hit a pole, continued along the west berm about 125 feet, hit another pole and overturned.

Following Weidner, Sowers, riding alone, lost control, missed the Weidner vehicle, but hit the culvert and overturned, police said.

Weidner, who suffered a fracture skull, was reported in "critical" condition at Carlisle Hospital.

Starner, with a possible skull fracture, was reported in "serious" condition in the same hospital. Sowers was discharged after receiving hospital treatment.

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A multi-million dollar industrial center will be built on a large tract formerly owned by the Baldwin-Lima-Hamilton Corp. at Eddystone in Delaware County.

Sale of the property, which includes seven huge single-story buildings and an area of 240 acres surrounding it was announced Wednesday by Albert J. Grosser Co., Philadelphia industrial realtors. Although no sale price was given, it was considered one of the largest real estate transactions ever completed in Philadelphia.

"HARD WORKING HANDS"

There's beauty in hard working hands . . . a very special kind . . . that tells a silent story of the labors of mankind . . . the strife and struggle tinted years . . . the calloused palms portray . . . the industry and effort that . . . goes on day after day . . . protruding veins like rivulets . . . weave lifelines to behold . . . adding to the narrative . . . mute signs of growing old . . . fingers marred by scars of time . . . hold chapters filled with tears . . . rugged hours punctuated . . . by a few brief cheers . . . still these are hands of tenderness . . . great concern and love . . . for their embrace is likened to . . . that of a velvet glove . . . hard working hands convey to me . . . a true and kindly heart . . . may God protect them, for they are . . . a priceless work of art.

FHA Girls On Visit To MECO In York

The following girls of the vocational home economics classes and the FHA of Littlestown High School visited the Metropolitan Edison Company, York, on Wednesday:

Jane Sheetz, Ruth Meyers, Carolyn Harrison, Joyce Dutterer, Mildred Koontz, Mildred Hikler, Sandra Anthony, Barbara Robert, Patricia Snyder, Ethel Arentz, Sandra Shadie, Nadine Rang, Nancy Trump, Donna Whisler, Mary Ann Wolfe, Jan Bair, Marion Worley, Lois Sparver, Eleanor Harner, Shirley Hoff, Patricia Anthony, Ruth Koontz, Verna Koontz, Wanda Pettyjohn, Mary Doss, Mary Hake and Mary Hess. The girls were accompanied by Mrs. Joanne M. Breighner, their instructor.

The group was given an opportunity to use the new laundry equipment there and demonstrate with an ironer. The girls prepared lunch on the new electric ranges. A movie "Electricity In The Home" was shown during the afternoon. A talk was given by a member of the host company.

POLIO BENEFIT DANCE

The Fraternal Order of Eagles, Littlestown Aerie No. 226, will sponsor a dance for the benefit of the March of Dimes on Saturday night from 9:30 to 12:30 o'clock. The affair will be held at the Eagle's Home on W. King St. for members and their lady guests. An orchestra will provide music for dancing.

Donna Lee Whisler Cherry Pie Queen

Miss Donna Lee Whisler, Littlestown R. D., won the cherry pie baking contest held at the Littlestown High School on Thursday afternoon. Miss Whisler, a senior, will participate in the county contest at the Gettysburg High School on Monday at 4:30 p.m.

The runner-up was Nancy Trump, also a senior. Mary Ann Wolfe, a senior, and Carolyn Harrison, sophomore, also participated. The judges were Miss Skelly, of the Manufacturers Light and Heat Company, Gettysburg; Paul E. King, supervising principal of the jointure, and Charles W. Weikert, of Weikert's Bakery, Littlestown. The contest was held in the home economics room at the school.

"Advances in agriculture have likewise brought about great changes. Mankind has always worried about famine. Now with fewer farmers, farming fewer acres than before, our problem is not how to feed our people but what to do with the surpluses of food."

"In the field of entertainment. But a few years ago the gramophone was to be found in many homes. Now practically every home has several radios and practically everyone has a television set. A few years ago attainment of a high school diploma was coveted. Now the college diploma has taken its place.

Times Have Changed

"A few years ago if a man were hurt while working it was up to his family and friends to care for him, or he could go to the poor house. I remember in 1915 when the first workmen's compensation law was passed. There were those who raved that it was socialism. Now we consider it as a normal part of our existence unemployment compensation, social security, public assistance, maximum hours for working, minimum wage laws and all the other social legislation that protects us and gives us more security."

"Today we live longer, we have more security, more comforts, more luxuries, better housing, more gadgets and more leisure. But I sometimes wonder if we have more happiness. We seem to be restless, groping for something. We have organizations for every type of problem. It sometimes seems that we have organizations to combat every ill that can befall mankind. And our organizations continuously seek ways to serve the people."

have organizations to combat every ill that can befall mankind. And our organizations continuously seek ways to serve the people."

"I wonder if our support of these organizations, their very presence, does not indicate something that is also indicated by our increased attendance at church and interest in religious affairs. I wonder if this restlessness of ours is not a seeking after, a striving to fulfill the words of Christ, 'Whatever you do unto these, the least of My brethren, you do unto Me!'"

Officers Installed

Bernard V. Miller, Barlow fire chief, was installed by Judge Sheely as the new president of the Adams County Fire Chiefs Association. Paul Wolf, York Springs, was installed as vice president, and G. Henry Roth, Gettysburg, secretary-treasurer. Retiring officers honored were President John Sneeringer, Irish-town, and Vice President Louis Smith, McSherrystown.

Introduced were Pius Martin, president of the Adams County Firemen's Association; Charles W. Culp Jr., president of the Adams County fire police; John Murren, Centennial, Adams County fire marshal;

Charles Guiden, Aspers, oldest fire chief present; Roger Myers, Fairfield chief and deputy county Civil Defense director; Donald McSherry, Donald Staab and Frank Linn, Gettysburg fire chiefs, whose work as ways and means committee provided the free banquet for the fire chiefs and their ladies, and John Poist, Conewago, chairman of the committee in charge of the banquet.

Entertainment was provided by members of the Adams County Senior Extension Club who presented square and folk dances and then led the fire chiefs and their ladies in square dancing. Fred Crouse was called for the dances.

Out Of The Past

From the Files of the Star and Sentinel and The Gettysburg Times

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

George G. Orner, Active Church Worker, Expires: George G. Orner, 79, died at his home in Butler township, near Arendtsville, Sunday evening at 10:50 o'clock from a complication of diseases. He had been in ill health for about two years and was bedfast since January 2.

The deceased was born near Arendtsville; a son of the late Jonas and Amelia G. (Grammer) Orner. He was a life-long member of the Arendtsville Reformed church, of which he was a deacon, elder and trustee, and belonged to the Men's Bible class. During his church membership he never missed a Communion service. He was a member of the K. of P. No. 325, of Arendtsville.

E. W. Thomas Jr. Is Named Cadet Lieutenant: Edmund Wells Thomas Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Wells Thomas, 131 West Lincoln avenue, is expected to graduate from the Air Corps Basic Flying school, Montgomery, Alabama, about February 8. Prior to his arrival at the school he had been attending the Air Corps Primary Training school at Parks Air college, East St. Louis, Illinois, where he obtained 60 hours in the air and made his solo flight on October 2, 1940. Thomas was appointed a flying cadet on September 9, and December 31, he was appointed a calet lieutenant, and holds that rank at all formations and drills.

Thomas was graduated from Gettysburg college in 1938 with a bachelor of arts degree.

Duesseldorf, 6 Invasion Ports Raided By R.A.F.: (By the Associated Press) Waves of R.A.F. bombers pounded the industrial city of Duesseldorf, western Germany, and sliced at six Nazi-held "invasion ports" along the channel coast, the London air ministry said today, in overnight raids marking the heaviest British serial offensive in two weeks.

I.O.O.F. To Use New Home Here On February 25: With renovations and improvements on the former Elks home, 11 Chambersburg street, recently purchased by Gettysburg Lodge, No. 124, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, near completion, tentative plans are being made for removal to the new home during this month. The first session of the lodge to be held in its new quarters will take place on February 25.

Citizens Give Guard Sendoff For Year's Duty: Citizens of Gettysburg and Adams county joined Wednesday evening in extending their best wishes to the active and reserve members of Company E, Gettysburg unit of the Pennsylvania National Guard, who on February 17 will be mobilized for a year of active training.

One hundred and thirty-one guardsmen, Reserve officers, special guests and members of six sponsoring local organizations dined on turkey at the Hotel Gettysburg and heard an address by Dr. Henry W. A. Hanson, Gettysburg college president. Judge W. C. Sheely was the toastmaster.

Air Force Is In Bad Condition Says Lindy: Washington, Feb. 6 — Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh said today that "if we ever are invaded in America, the responsibility will lie upon those who send our arms abroad."

Reiterating his opposition to the British aid bill before the senate foreign relations committee, the noted flier asserted that it is an "established fact" that the country's air force is in "deplorable condition," its army "but poorly equipped," and its battle fleet "in urgent need of new equipment."

W. C. Waltemyer New Editor Of College Paper: William C. Waltemyer Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Waltemyer, Springs avenue, was named editor-in-chief of "The Gettysburgian," Gettysburg college weekly newspaper, and three other Gettysburg boys were named to positions on the editorial staff at the paper's annual banquet Thursday evening at the Hotel Gettysburg.

Today's TalkGET SELF-AQUAINTED

We may think that we know ourselves very well, but when we are put to different tests we discover that we are very ignorant of ourselves. We do, perhaps, know ourselves better than other people, but it takes great knowledge and character to properly appraise ourselves. I came across this line by the artist, Robert Henri. He said: "Self acquaintance is a rare condition."

How many times, when confused, someone else suggests to us just what we should do and of a sudden we are revealed to ourselves. We are told how little we knew of our own self. In an emergency we often rush to someone else, not realizing that we alone hold within us the secret as to how to act.

It has often been stated that we are either our best, or worst, friend. If we were self-acquainted, we would be self-reliant, independent, and free from all fear. One of the most famous of statements was made by Socrates when he said: "Know thyself!" We all know of persons who have never learned how to get along with themselves and so, naturally, they are difficult people for any of us to get along with.

The more we know about ourselves, the better are we prepared to understand others. We must each strive to get self-acquainted, so as to make the most of all that we are. Be your own best friend! Take the habit of reading. Many have lived a good portion of their lives without having read a single book. Then, unexpectedly, the reading of a single book has opened up a new world to such readers.

There were three explosions.

The four firemen pinned beneath a metal wall were pulled out quickly by rescuers. The injured were treated at hospitals and released.

Firemen said the blaze apparently started in a garage section of the refrigeration parts plant.

SOUTH PENN BB LEAGUE ADMITS LITTLESTOWN 9

Littlestown was admitted to the South Penn Baseball League at a reorganization meeting of the league Thursday evening at the American Legion Home.

The new team will replace Taneytown which recently switched its affiliation to the Pen-Mar League.

Chester Shriner, Gettysburg, was elected as the new league president. He succeeds Norbert Felix, Hanover, who had requested he would not be considered for the post due to pressure of business.

Other officers selected were Robert Kritchen, Hanover R. 4, vice president, and Robert Miller, Gettysburg R. 2, secretary-treasurer.

All teams were represented at the meeting with the exception of Wenksville.

Another meeting has been scheduled for Thursday, March 1, at the Legion Home at which time teams will be required to post their forfeits, plans made for the hiring of umpires, and a discussion revision of bylaws will be held.

JACKSON IS UNDERDOG IN BAKER BATTLE

NEW YORK (AP) — If Tommy (Hurricane) Jackson can't arouse Bob Baker to a "shoot the works" effort at Madison Square Garden tonight, the cause is hopeless.

Bulky Bob, the No. 2 heavyweight contender in the latest Ring ratings (No. 1 is NBA), admits he looked bad while beating Nino Valdes Dec. 7 at Cleveland for his 13th straight. "I was winning and didn't extend myself," he explained.

The Hurricane is an expert in "extending" opponents. He jabs, dances a jig, does arm exercises and scowls. In fact, he usually is so busy doing things that an opponent is completely overwhelmed.

9 Straight After Valdes

After Nino Valdes put the crusher on his budding career by stopping him at the Garden, Jackson won nine straight, including two decisions over Ezzard Charles. Then Jimmy Slade decisioned him in 10 rounds at Cleveland Oct. 28. He hasn't fought since.

Baker's victory string started after he was stopped by Archie Moore in Miami March 9, 1954. He beat Rex Layne three times last year but flunked the big test when he and Valdes were matched with the understanding that the winner, if impressive, might get the title shot at champion Rocky Marciano in the summer. Baker won in a dreary match that practically eliminated both men.

Grabbing a 20-9 lead in the first period, the Agency squad led all the way. Michaels and Lewandowski each tallied 14 points for the winners while Bill Signor topped the losers with 15.

In the opening game the Eagles coppered their first victory after three setbacks by topping Bob's Diner in a low scoring game 33-25.

It was a close battle until the Eagles outscored their opponents 14-3 in the final period. Knox led the Eagles with 10 points and Decker was high for Bob's Diner with 12.

HERSHEY BEARS END 10-GAME HORNET STREAK

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Pittsburgh's 10-game winning streak in the American Hockey League was at an end today, but the Hornets didn't go down without a fight.

The Hershey Bears dumped the streaking Hornets 6-4 on Wednesday in a game marked by fistfights and a free-for-all in the closing minutes.

The setback was a costly one for Pittsburgh since league-leading Providence shut out Buffalo 1-0 to move eight points in front of the runnerup Hornets.

The Cleveland Barons beat the Springfield Indians 4-2 in the other game.

Equalled Providence Mark

Pittsburgh, which had equalled the season's high mark of 10 straight triumphs by Providence, also had high hopes of tying the league record of 11 in a row set by Cleveland in 1943-44.

But leading 3-2 at the end of the first period, the Hornets were outscored 3-1 in the second session as Arnie Kullman, Red Pleisch and Stan Parker registered for Hershey. Al Nicholson wrapped it up for the Bears with a goal late in the final period.

The Providence combination of forward Zelio Toppazzini, the circuit's leading scorer, provided the winning margin by scoring at 9:46 of the final period. Bower came up with 34 stops to gain his third shutout.

Cal Stearns scored two goals for Cleveland, which remained four points ahead of Hershey in the struggle for fourth place. The loss was Springfield's 30th in 43 games this season.

Colts Sign No. 1 Choice Lenny Moore

BALTIMORE (AP) — The Baltimore Colts today announced the signing of halfback Lenny Moore of Penn State, the Colts No. 1 choice in the 1956 National Football League draft.

The Reading, Pa., Negro was the leading ground gainer in the Eastern Intercollegiate Football Assn. for two years, rushing for 1,082 yards in 1954 and 667 yards last season.

The Colts will use the 21-year-old 190-pound Moore as an offensive halfback. Penn State Coach Rip Engle has said of Moore: "He has a sixth sense—a sense possessed only by great runners."

Moore played in the last East-West football game.

In three years at Penn State he gained 2,380 yards rushing for a new three-year Penn State record. He scored 25 touchdowns.

Moore becomes the 15th Colt signed for '56.

SEEK PERFECT FORECASTS ON HURRICANES

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — The greatest concentrated attack ever made on one of man's most pressing weather problems — how to forecast disaster with perfect hurricane forecasts — will be launched in Florida in May.

Robert H. Simpson, tall, hard-driving research expert of the U.S. Weather Bureau's Washington staff, disclosed final plans for the ambitious project today after a conference here with Navy and Air Force experts who will participate.

Coming on the heels of history's most terrible hurricane season, the immediate aim of the program, in which scores of scientists of several nations will participate, will be to perfect a foolproof 24-hour hurricane forecast.

To Try To Steer Them

Later, they expect to develop forecasting techniques to a point where weathermen can say three days in advance when and at what place a hurricane will hit the coast.

And in working toward this goal, they hope by cloud seeding to find a way to avert future tragedies by steering these mighty tropical storms away from densely populated areas.

Horrified by the fury of the 1955 hurricanes, which took a two-billion-dollar damage toll, the greatest in history, Congress appropriated half a million dollars to get the project started and is expected to vote more money as needed. The work probably will cost eight million dollars.

Included in this giant effort will

Tax Compromise Expected Soon

HARRISBURG (AP) — House Republican and Democratic leaders, seemingly confident of reaching a bipartisan tax agreement, have fixed their sights on a possible floor vote next week.

House Democratic Leader Readinger said a special eight-member committee is "closer and closer" to a compromise. His words were echoed by House Republican Leader Smith.

"We think we can reach some agreement Sunday night and have it ready to present to our respective caucuses on Monday," they said in a joint statement last night after the second of two closed meetings.

But neither would discuss if Republicans and Democrats have agreed so far on the extent of the commonwealth's tax needs or on whether both an income and sales tax would be part of any compromise.

WASHINGTON (AP) — A famous letter Franklin D. Roosevelt wrote 10 days after the 1941 Pearl Harbor attack to "the President of the United States in 1958" has been delivered at last to Dwight D. Eisenhower.

The World War II President's letter asked consideration for "the merits of a young American of goodly heritage — Colin P. Kelly III — for appointment as a cadet in the United States Military Academy at West Point."

Now A HS Sophomore

Young Kelly — then an infant and now a 6-foot, 15-year-old high school sophomore — is the son of Capt. Colin P. Kelly Jr., the United States' first hero of the war, killed in a bombing mission in the Pacific a few days after Pearl Harbor.

Colin III lives at Concordville, Pa., near Philadelphia, with his mother and stepfather, Mr. and Mrs. J. Watson Pedlow. He attends Westtown Friends School, a Quaker institution.

He's Interested

The White House said Thursday

be:

1. Flying electronic "brains" that will probe hurricanes up to 40,000 feet to determine why they generate such tremendous power and why they travel as they do along fickle, serpentine paths over land and sea.
2. High-flying Navy rockets that will soar 50 miles to take the first photographs of whole hurricanes covering hundreds of square miles.

Scheduled to last 30 months, through three hurricane seasons, the investigation might go on five years or more.

FOREIGN POLICY BIPARTISANSHIP NOW 'SHAMBLES' SAYS MR. HST

By JAMES DEVLIN

NEW YORK (AP)—Former President Harry S. Truman says President Eisenhower's Republican administration has made a "shambles" of bipartisanship in foreign policy.

This, he adds, is "the thing that worries me most in the political scene for 1956."

In a speech reminiscent of his "give 'em hell" tactics in the 1948 campaign, Truman addressed 2,800 wildly applauding partisans at a $100-a-plate dinner last night.

Launches Campaign

The dinner launched the Democratic 1956 presidential campaign in New York state, which has 96 of the 1,372 votes at the party's national convention next August in Chicago.

Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee, an open candidate for the presidential nomination, and Gov. Averell Harriman of New York, an "inactive" candidate, also delivered slashing attacks on the GOP.

"Responsibility for bipartisanship in foreign policy rests squarely on the administration in power—in the White House and nowhere else," said Truman. "It is impossible for anyone else to remain in the ready reserve for at least 2½ years."

He said Republicans excluded Democrats from formulation of foreign policy because they had charged the Democrats with treason and they want "to be in a position to do it again."

Leaves His Text

They have described him and Gen. George C. Marshall, his secretary of state, as "traitors," said Truman.

"If we're traitors, the country is in a hell of a fix," he said, departing from his prepared text.

In another departure from his

May Draft More Men For Shorter Periods

WASHINGTON (AP)—More young men may be drafted to serve for shorter periods in a temporary move to bolster the lagging ready reserve program.

Secretary of Defense Wilson disclosed the tentative plans at a news conference Wednesday. Still under discussion, it would cut from 24 to 18 months the required active service of as many as 100,000 present draftees who agree to remain in the ready reserve for at least 2½ years.

To provide replacements for them and keep up the military strength, draft calls would be increased—perhaps doubled. Wilson emphasized that the program, if adopted, would be temporary and would extend no later than June 1957.

No special legislation would be required.

York County Mills Get State Order

HARRISBURG (AP)—Four paper manufacturing plants in York County today had orders from the State Sanitary Water Board to improve treatment of mill wastes discharged into Codorus Creek.

Concerns affected are the P.H. Glatfelter Paper Co., Spring Grove; Certain-Tee Corp. and Yorktone Paper Mills, both in Spring Garden Twp., and the Schmidt and Ault Paper Co., York.

planned remarks, he said: "From here on, I'm going to state the facts no matter who gets hurt."

He said the Eisenhower administration policies are leading us into a situation of growing danger where the balance of strength may shift strongly against the free world."

He described the situation in Europe as "more precarious than it has been since 1947."

"We have lost heavily among the millions of uncommitted people of Asia," he said. "We seem to have no strategy for defending the Middle East against Communist subversion."

He said the Republicans are "desperate" concerning this year's election campaign.

"They know," he said, "they don't have a chance with anyone except Ike and the pressure they are putting on him to run in spite of everything is just positively indecent."

He said the Democrats are "going to give the American people a chance to vote for a president—and not a regency or a part-time chairman of the board."

EDEN TELLS U.S. NOT TO FEAR TO TALK UP TO REDS

By WARREN ROGERS JR.

WASHINGTON (AP)—British Prime Minister Eden winds up his five-day Washington visit today with this advice to the American people: Never be afraid to meet and argue with the Russians.

Eden made this suggestion in a 15-minute radio-television report to the nation last night on his three-day conference with President Eisenhower.

He emphasized Anglo-American unity, just as he had in his mid-day talks to the Senate and House.

Encouraged By Talks

Calling his conversations with Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles "the most encouraging conference I have ever attended," he said the real accomplishment was hard to describe. He termed it "a spirit of unity" and said holding to it "can man peace for the world forever."

"I know of nothing like it in the world today," he said. Then he said he wanted to talk to those Americans who might object to any more talks with the Russians:

"To those who may feel amongst you that you should never have contacts with those whose faith is the antithesis of your own, to those I would say I wouldn't myself take up that attitude."

"If you have confidence in yourself, if you believe in your own convictions, if you trust to your own faith, you needn't be afraid, you shouldn't be afraid, to meet and to argue with others."

Unity Is Genuine

He said the United States and Britain should continue their no-strings-attached program of economic aid to less developed nations.

"Self-government and economic stability are the strongest antidotes to communism," he declared.

In referring to his talks with Eisenhower, Eden made no specific mention of differences which developed over such Far East questions as the West's trade embargo on Red China. Britain sought a relaxation but won only a U. S. agreement to review the situation.

But Eden did acknowledge that some differences exist. He pleaded that these should not be balloonized out of proportion into big headlines because, he said, essential Anglo-American unity is genuine and "so much more important."

He said the Democrats are "going to give the American people a chance to vote for a president—and not a regency or a part-time chairman of the board."

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES

Seek Overseer For Guided Missiles

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Pentagon is putting its guided missile program under an overseer charged with giving particular attention to ballistic weapon development — field where the race with Russia is critical.

Secretary of Defense Wilson announced Wednesday his plan to name a "special assistant to the secretary of defense for guided missiles."

And he disclosed at a news conference that he intends leaving tonight on a personal checkup of Army progress in the ballistic missile effort.

Wilson and several advisers arranged to fly to the Army's Huntsville, Ala., arsenal, where the Redstone rocket is under development. The Redstone is intended to be a mid-range, 1,500-mile ballistic missile.

WOULD FORBID ROAD LITTERING

HARRISBURG (AP)—Littering of highways from a car would be punishable by a $25 fine under a proposal ready for Gov. Leader's signature today.

House agreement on amendments inserted by the Senate Wednesday completed legislative action on the measure sponsored by Reps. Strausser (R-Columbia) and Swartz (D-Lycoming).

It would prohibit any occupant of an auto from throwing garbage, bottles, cans, rubbish, wire or glass on the road. The Senate removed from the bill a clause specifying also missiles, paper or other type of debris or trash.

Upon conviction a violator could be given up to 10 days in jail instead of a fine.

The original proposal passed 196-0 by the House in December, applied only to the owner or operator of the car. The Senate approved the bill 43-1 on Jan. 24.

SOUTH UNEASY WITH BLASTS, STATE ACTION

ATLANTA (AP)—Ingredients from court and legislature simmered uneasily today in the South's racial cauldron kindled anew by a bomb blast in Alabama.

Virginia legislators voted strong approval to a resolution of interposition which denounced the U.S. Supreme Court's ruling on public school segregation as an "illegal encroachment" on the sovereign rights of a state.

They voiced the pledge that Virginia, where the interposition movement had its recent rebirth, would follow whatever legal and honorable means it could muster to impede the mixing of white and Negro students in the classroom.

Vote Is Overwhelming

The vote Wednesday left no doubt as to Virginia's stand: in the Senate the resolution passed 36-2; in the House 90-5.

Under the process of interposition, if more than one-fourth of the states interpose their rights on the question of public schools integration, Congress will be asked to submit a constitutional amendment for approval of the country as a whole to clarify the rights of the states.

In Georgia, a House committee approved a bill that would take away the charter of any city that fails to maintain racially segregated facilities. The measure apparently was aimed directly at Atlanta, where a federal court order recently brought an end to segregation on public golf courses.

South Carolina Acts

An interposition resolution has been introduced in the South Carolina General Assembly. Adoption is expected next week. Gov. George Bell Timmerman Jr., made an unusual special appearance before the Legislature to endorse the resolution. It declares that South Carolina will exercise "all powers reserved to it to protect its sovereignty and the rights of its people."

Alabama was the first state to adopt an interposition plan which seeks to hold void the racial rulings of the Supreme Court—and the plan became official and went into effect without the governor's endorsement.

The deadline for executive action on Alabama's nullification resolution came Wednesday, and Gov.

James E. Folsom said then that he was washing his hands of the matter. Thus lacking action by the governor, the bill was not returned to the House, where it originated, and it thereby became an act automatically.

2nd Bomb Blast

The bomb blast came on Wednesday. It was the second set off in 48 hours in Montgomery, onetime capital of the Confederacy and now beset by a drawn-out Negro boycott of city buses.

The bomb exploded in the front yard of the home of E. D. Nixon, a Negro Pullman car porter and former president of the Alabama Chapter of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People. Monday night a bomb was tossed at the parsonage home of the Rev. M. L. King, a Negro Baptist preacher.

Both Nixon and King have been

At the same time, Judge Follmer reduced from nine months to nine days the sentence given Miss Judy Davis, 33, of McAdoo, for contempt of court in the same case.

Miss Davis was released Wednesday along with Daniel Willis, 53, Hazleton, sentenced to the same term for the same offense.

Both reappeared and testified before the grand jury in its investigation of reported transportation of women across state lines for immoral purposes.

Anthony W. Radice, Trenton, N.J., charged with perjury in his testimony before the grand jury, was released and ordered to testify at a later date. He had not been sentenced.

NEW APPEAL BY BULGANIN FAILS TO CONVINCE U.S.

Thinks MacArthur Wrapped Up In East

WASHINGTON (AP)—Former President Truman says he thinks Gen. Douglas MacArthur became too "wrapped up in the East" and lost touch with this country during his 14-year absence.

Truman both praises and criticizes MacArthur in the latest installment of his memoirs, appearing in Life magazine. But he expresses regret that the general, who remained in the Far East from 1936 until Truman fired him early in 1951, didn't visit this country more often "to familiarize himself with the situation at home."

In a 2,800-word message made public by the State Department late last night, Bulganin urged President Eisenhower to reconsider the 20-year pact proposed by the Russian Premier last week and promptly turned down by Eisenhower.

U. S. officials said Bulganin's new message was mainly a rehash of previous arguments for the treaty and that he had not advanced persuasive new ideas.

Ike's Position

Eisenhower, in a letter Saturday, had told Bulganin a treaty between Russia and the United States, merely reiterating peaceful behavior pledges already in the United Nations Charter, "might indeed work against the cause of peace."

He said such a pact could create

IKE'S DOCTORS DISAGREE ON DECISION TIME

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower, if he decides soon on whether to run again, may also have to decide on which of his doctors to listen to.

They seem in disagreement now on when he can tell whether he's physically able to try for a second term. And one of the doctors is either in disagreement with him self or for some reason has changed his mind since December.

Bulganin picked up Eisenhower's argument that "deeds not words" are needed to ease East-West tensions, and sought to turn it back on the United States.

After a final physical checkup in mid-February, Eisenhower should be able to know enough about his physical condition to decide whether to run for a second term. By mid-February Eisenhower will have been 4½ months past his attack.

But yesterday Snyder had a different idea. "It takes longer" than 4½ months, he told a newsman. "He should have more time—all the time he needs. He is not in a position yet to know whether he can go ahead and hit the ball."

At a news conference Dec. 10 Snyder was asked: "At what date will you be able to pronounce recovery? How much longer would the convalescence have to go?"

First Set Mid-February

Snyder said: "Well, I think if I am in the President's berth and could analyze the situation from his viewpoint, from my knowledge as a physician, that I would not be able to make such a determination . . . for two months . . ."

He was asked: "Are you now saying that it will be at least mid-February before the President's recovery will be complete enough to determine whether he would be physically able to run for a second term?"

Snyder replied: "I would say that . . . I wouldn't do it before mid-February . . ."

On Dec. 17, seven days after the Snyder news conference, White held one and said Eisenhower's doctors would make their crucial test in mid-February.

He said he wanted Eisenhower to resume "pretty much his full job" about Jan. 9 and "four or

Several New Items

Bulganin told Eisenhower Russia would be prepared to make friendship treaties with Britain, France and other countries.

Even though the U. N. Charter pledges its members to peaceful conduct, he argued, the aims of the U. N. would be advanced if "the two greatest powers in the world" could "harmonize" their relations by signing a two-way pact.

The offer to make treaties with Britain and France was a new element in the latest message.

So was a statement by Bulganin that a U. S.-Soviet friendship treaty "would be of great positive significance in establishing the necessary prerequisites for the solution of the German problem."

Not Fully Understood

American authorities said they did not understand what Bulganin meant by this bait. In the same message he renewed a charge that the United States, Britain and France seek to re-establish "militarism" in all Germany.

Another new element was an invitation by Bulganin for Eisenhower to submit his "thoughts" on provisions of a friendship treaty. He gave assurances that they would receive "the greatest attention."

This was a clear bid for the President to enter into active negotiations on a treaty.

Two Propaganda Aims

As propaganda, the statement apparently has two aims:

1. To present the world with a new Russian peace statement immediately after the conclusion of the Eden-Eisenhower talks and thereby perhaps divert attention from the results of those talks.

2. To provide a propaganda cover for the Eisenhower reply of last Saturday to Bulganin's first letter proposing the friendship treaty.

five weeks added on to that would be the time that we doctors would think desirable for that more or less final test."

At another news conference Jan. 30 White was asked whether Eisenhower is physically fit to withstand the rigors of a political campaign and four more White House years.

White replied: It is a "question that has to be decided when I see him again (meaning mid-February). We will give him the information. He has to make the decision himself."

They seem in disagreement now on when he can tell whether he's physically able to try for a second term. And one of the doctors is either in disagreement with him self or for some reason has changed his mind since December.

Last December Eisenhower's White House doctor and friend, Maj. Gen. Howard M. Snyder, and the President's chief medical consultant, Dr. Paul Dudley White, Boston heart specialist, told news-

"LA PRENSA" ON STREETS AGAIN IN BUENOS AIRES

Buenos Aires, Argentina (AP)—La Prensa reappeared today under the banner of the founding Paz family.

Famed editor Alberto Gainza Paz touched a button starting the presses rolling and moments later was handed the first copy of the newspaper.

Publication was resumed under the guidance of Gainza Paz 1,833 days after La Prensa's independent voice was silenced by the regime of deposed President Juan D. Peron. An editorial in the first clients from the south central counties of the state."

Biggs, however, did not agree that a new judge is needed for the middle district, although he urged that 21 new federal judgeships be authorized for the United States.

Quigley said he is "convinced that we need another (Middle District) judge and I believe (the) judge should be required to sit litigation for both lawyers and permanently in Harrisburg."

dition pledged the best efforts of the newspaper to keep dictatorship from ever again seizing control in Argentina.

The editorial said: "This is not the time nor place to enter into the details of the plundering. The truth is that La Prensa was silenced . . ."

Much was destroyed under Peron it added, but "our country has the necessary elements under a regime of freedom and individual guarantees to rebuild the destruction."

The paper was founded by the Paz family in 1869. The last edition under Gainza Paz was published Jan. 26, 1951. La Prensa was closed by police, expropriated by federal law and turned over to the Peron-founded General Confederation of Labor.

Gainza Paz was arrested for contempt of Congress in March 1951, but escaped and fled to exile in the United States.

The labor organization published La Prensa as a Peronista organ until Peron was overthrown last September. The newspaper plant was returned to Gainza Paz by the new government last November.

QUIGLEY SEES NEED FOR JUDGE

WASHINGTON (AP)—Chief Judge John Biggs Jr. of the 3rd Circuit Court of Appeals says "every effort" will be made to establish a deputy clerk's office in Harrisburg, Pa., for the U. S. Middle District Court of Pennsylvania.

Testifying before a House judiciary subcommittee yesterday, Biggs agreed with Rep. Quigley (D-Pa.), a member of the committee, that a "permanent full time deputy clerk (in Harrisburg) would greatly facilitate the handling of litigation for both lawyers and clients from the south central counties of the state."

Biggs, however, did not agree that a new judge is needed for the middle district, although he urged that 21 new federal judgeships be authorized for the United States.

Quigley said he is "convinced that we need another (Middle District) judge and I believe (the) judge should be required to sit

PLAN TRANSFER OF GIRL SCOUTS

Faith Redding and Barbara Pittenturf were colorbearers at the meeting of Brownie Troop 45, on Wednesday afternoon at the engine house. The group sang "America," accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Karl P. Bankert, after roll call was conducted in charge of Peggy Altoff. The weekly expression period included: Glockenspiel solo, Sally Bankert, accompanied by her mother; glockenspiel solo, Linda Keefer; piano solo, Jean Hornberger. Mrs. John Kump, troop leader, read a letter to the Brownies from a former leader, Mrs. Edwin W. Elder Jr., who is now residing with her family in Paris.

Mrs. Emerson F. Muller, troop leader, read a letter from the Adams County Girl Scout Council, announcing that six members of the troop would be transferred to Troop 43, so that the same age group of girls would be assigned to each troop. The girls being transferred to Troop 43, of which Mrs. Kenneth K. Kroh is leader, are Sally Bussey, Joyce Hymiller, Faith Redding, Carole Stuller, Suzanne Stuller, Kathryn Weikert and Suzanne Weaver. Troop 45 will meet again next Wednesday at 3:30 p.m.

Guild Meets

Mrs. Clyde L. Sternier was leader at the February meeting of the Women's Guild of Christ Evangelical and Reformed Church, held on Wednesday evening at the church. The opening devotions included: Group hymns, "Evening Prayer" and "Take My Life And Let It Be"; reading, Mrs. Charles A. Grove; Scripture from Romans and Matthew, Mrs. Irvin C. Markle; group hymn, "Only Believe"; prayer, Mrs. Clyde Sternier. The three part topic was discussed as follows: "To Whom I Committed?", Mrs. Sternier, leader; "Commitment Belongs To Human Nature," Mrs. G. Howard Koons led; "Commitment To Daily Life — Go The Second Mile," Mrs. Orville C. Senter led. The Indian version of the 23rd Psalm was read by the leader.

The business session was conducted by Mrs. Ralph L. Unger, president. The birthday of Mrs. Orville C. Senter was noted. Mrs. Bernard W. Dutterer was appointed to be the leader for the next meeting on Wednesday, March 7, at the church. The session concluded with prayer in unison.

Lions Hold Meeting

Mrs. Lloyd L. Slavely and Mrs. Ralph Conover will serve as hosts at the February meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary to the Ocker-Snyder Post 321, American Legion, on Wednesday at 7:30 p.m.; at the Legion Home, E. King St.

The next regular meeting of the Lions will be held on Thursday, February 16, 7 p.m., at St. John's. The program will be in charge of the Health and Welfare Committee, consisting of Marvin F. Breighner and Chester S. Byers. Plans will be furthered for the eighth annual amateur show to be held after Easter.

FOX CHASE SATURDAY

The public is invited to attend a red fox chase on Sunday afternoon, 1 o'clock, at the Kingsdale carnival grounds, about two and a half miles from Littlestown, on the Taneytown Rd.

AUXILIARY TO MEET

Mrs. Lloyd L. Slavely and Mrs. Ralph Conover will serve as hosts at the February meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary to the Ocker-Snyder Post 321, American Legion, on Wednesday at 7:30 p.m.; at the Legion Home, E. King St.

Minstrel Repeated For Ambulance Fund

A responsive audience was on hand for the second and final performance of "Ye Auld Tyme Minstrel," given under the sponsorship of the Ocker-Snyder Post 321, American Legion, on Thursday evening in the Littlestown High School auditorium.

The minstrel was presented for the benefit of the community ambulance fund. The community's new ambulance was put into service on June 14, 1954, and has answered 168 calls and traveled 6,442 miles. The Legion helps maintain the ambulance and the operation costs for the past year include: annual insurance premium, $285; gas, oil and over-all maintenance amounted to $192.45.

Thanks was extended by the Legionnaires to all those who helped in any way to make the minstrel a success.

The minstrel committees included:

Clyde H. Rohrbaugh; advertising, Elmer W. M. Dutcher, chairman, Ray T. Harner, Chester S. Byers, Paul E. Renner, William Pfaff, Clair J. Redding and Ralph R. Ruggles. The average size of the eggs of a bald eagle usually are larger in size the farther north they are found.

P. Long, Gilbert A. Royston, George C. DeHoff and Herman G. Kaler.

WES SANTEE IS WITHDRAWING FROM 3 EVENTS

NEW YORK (AP)—Wes Santee, America's controversial and fastest miler, has withdrawn, apparently by request, from three of the top indoor track and field meets of the season, including the Millrose Games at Madison Square Garden in which he was scheduled to meet unbeaten Ron Delany in the Wanamaker Mile tomorrow night.

In almost identical telegrams to promoters of the Millrose meet, the New York A.C. Games on Feb.

18 and the National AAU championships Feb. 25, Lt. Tom Rosendich, coach of the Quantico Marines, cancelled Santee's entry because of "personal business." Santee, a lieutenant in the Marines, is stationed at Quantico.

While "personal business" was given as the reason, America's chief hope for the Olympic 1,500-meter title obviously has decided to forego further running until final decision is reached regarding his amateur standing.

Withdrawn By Request

Santee, reached at Quantico, said the "personal business" had nothing to do with his leg injury, which sidelined him until last Saturday when he ran fourth behind Delany at Boston. Delany was timed in 4:06.3 and Santee in 4:08.

While declining to comment further, the former Kansas ace did

Mrs. Bowes Wins Pushbutton Range

Mrs. M. W. Bowes, R. 4, won a pushbutton Hotpoint range in the recent nationwide $2,000,000 Golden Anniversary Contest.

Harry White Jr., manager of the Service Supply Co., through whom Mrs. Bowes won the range, said judges in Chicago selected Mrs. Bowes' entry as the best dealer prize entry in this area.

Service Supply Co. sponsored the pushbutton Hotpoint range in the recent nationwide $2,000,000 Golden Anniversary Contest.

Other first, second and third prizes awarded to families in the United States and Hawaii include four completely furnished electric home, 50 pushbutton kitchen-laundries and almost 5,000 major appliances.
